COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES & EVENT SPACE

MALDEN BRIDGE COMMUNITY CENTER

is located in the hamlet of Malden Bridge, on the northern edge of Columbia County, New York. This 'country chapel', built as a Methodist church in 1835, lies in the triangle where the Old Albany Turnpike and Shaker Museum Road converge, near the intersection of New York State Route 66.

In 2009 the former Wesley United Methodist Church of Malden Bridge presented the property to the residents of Malden Bridge who had organized as the Malden Bridge Community Center Inc. They formed and were approved as a 501(c)(3) corporation and are managed by a Board of Directors consisting of members of the community.

Our facility is available to anyone in our community and the surrounding area for a wide range of uses. We encourage educational and artistic uses including classes, art shows, and performances. MBCC is also available for commercial meetings and events or private functions such as weddings or large parties and is a proper setting for funerals.

Non-profit entities and members may use our facilities for discounted fees, while private groups will be asked to pay a competitive fee.

Our Community Center building features the following amenities which can be used separately or on a combined basis:

Vedder Hall

An attractive wood-paneled 850 square foot meeting room with flexible seating and outstanding natural light. This room is suitable for small meetings, dinners, classes or as an art or small performance studio.

Wesley Room

A large 990 square foot meeting room (the old church sanctuary) suitable for large events of all types including performances where a substantial audience is expected. Moveable 'pew' seating is available in this room.

Kitchen

A kitchen and pantry which can be used as a staging area for catered meals or to prepare modest meals.

The entire facility can hold up to 99 people at any one event with parking spaces for 22 cars onsite. Additional parking can be arranged if needed.

The Mission of the Malden Bridge Community Center Inc. is to provide a facility which welcomes the involvement and interests of all members of the community in an inviting and inexpensive format. It is our hope that residents continue to use the Center for personal and community gatherings, full details are available on our website.
